RECORDS FROM THE HOLY BIBLE, PRINTED AT OXFORD, MDCCLII, FURNISHED TO HUGH B. JOHNSTON, JR., OF WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA, BY MISS JANE M. FORT, A THOMAS DESCENDANT, OF ROBERTSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE. These records consist of "The children of John Thomas and Elizabeth his wife" of Nansemond County, Virginia. Elizabeth was obviously the daughter of Humphrey Marshall of Isle of Wight County who left his daughter Elizabeth Thomas ten pounds for bringing up her son John Thomas, who was the only child born prior to Marshall's death. The father of this John had a brother Richard Thomas about whom little is known, and a half-brother John Thomas (named for his grandfather John Lawrence) who founded a considerable family in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, the part now embraced in Wilson County. At least three sons of John and Elizabeth Marshall Thomas settled in the present Nash County, North Carolina, and one of their grandsons, the Honorable Micajah Thomas, Jr., was a man of great wealth and influence in the County.

1. John Thomas, Jr., was born on September 22, 1710, and died on April 16, 1776.
2. Mary Thomas was born on August 18, 1712.
3. Joseph Thomas was born on February 27, 1713/14, and died on April 25, 1758.
4. Christian Thomas was born on March 14, 1715/16.
5. Elizabeth Thomas was born on January 14, 1717/18.
6. Martha Thomas was born on January 9, 1719/20.
7. Susannah Thomas was born on February 26, 1721/22. She married Samson Pope, and the births of four Pope children are given in the Bible.
8. Jacob Thomas was born on November 4, 1723.
9. Micajah Thomas was born on February 13, 1725/6, and died on December 14, 1769.

(The above Hugh B. Johnston, Jr., has a very large manuscript history of the descendants of several branches of the Thomas family of Nansemond County, Virginia.)
